

Declaration of Independence

On this Mayan day: 12.19.17.17.10

We, the united people of this earth and the Tribe of mankind do hereby clearly and unequivocally state:

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident:

1. That all people are created equal
2. That they are endowed as an equal people with certain inalienable rights
3. That among these are life, liberty, health, the pursuit of happiness
4. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among people, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed
5. That whenever any form of government becomes obstructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to reject it, and to institute new government or new systems, laying its foundation on such principles and organising its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and experience has shown, that people are more disposed to suffer, while the evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to reject such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.

Such has been the patient suffering of the people of this earth; and such is now the necessity, which obliges them to alter their former systems of government. The modern history of world governmental organisations and the respective network of private financial institutions that lord over them, has repeatedly proved that they do not serve the best interests of the people and appear to have become corrupted by elite organisations intent on injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over the people of this earth and it's universal neighbours.

To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

1. Modern day credit is backed by the labour of the people.
2. It is the credit of the people that forms the basis of the credit issued with interest by privately owned financial institutions, reserve banks and their governmental backers.
3. In a modern world it is not possible to ever pay off the debt created by these institutions without the people giving up their right to life, liberty and happiness.
4. It is neither the people nor their established governments who control the issuing of the credit used within modern societies, and modern-day governmental design cannot function without the usurpers of our peoples' credit.
5. It is the nature of the banking systems that continues a modern day slavery of the people through the artificial debt that these organisations have the authority and supreme power to create, ensuring the ongoing enslavement of the people, their children and their children's children.

A day in our future will come when our children will ask us what we were doing while the wool of our enslavement was pulled over our eyes. We should not have to look into their eyes and tell them we were afraid.

We have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. Any government whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a tyrant, is unfit to lord over free people.

We, therefore, the people of the Tribe of Good Hope and Representatives of the shield that shall be known as the Republic of Good Hope, appealing to the supreme judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name, and by authority of the good people of this earth, and all that live in the universe, solemnly publish and declare, That the people of the Tribe of Good Hope, are absolved from all allegiance to any corporate government enforcing debt-based monetary policies, and that all political and practical connection between the people and their assumed governments, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as a free and independent tribe, we have full Power to establish debt-free exchange systems, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent tribes may of right do. And for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honour.

We, the living people of flesh with blood flowing through our veins do invite you, the people of this earth and all the inhabitants of the universe (known and unknown), to join our tribe, or to establish your own aligned tribes, in our focused desire to live in harmony and be one with the universe and all its children.
