greetings johan,

upon returning to the court house in knysna last friday to obtain case numbers, one of the ladies at the cashier informed me that the (senior) public prosecutor in george had requested the docket after an unsatisfactory outcome on wednesday; RTMC officer hendrik payle seemed unmistakably upset too when i visited him at the office, refusing to return my private property he enlightened me that peace officer qampi would've been available to testify in court on wednesday 15th november, apparently she was on duty and could've been summoned to court within an hour, but the prosecutor informed magistrate thafeni, on record, that qampi was on leave that day, leading up to thafeni taking up my offer to strike the matter off the roll;

as indicated on record, should the state and/or its agents wish to resume the prosecution, whether they can provide proof of jurisdiction or not, which forms the basis of this subject matter and will be part of any possible future trial, i shall make myself available if travel costs will be reimbursed, no matter what the outcome; this was my second visitation in this matter, each trip to knysna equals ca. R600 in fuel, also take note of the RGH fee schedule, which is applicable whether your court or my court arrives at a favourable outcome or judgment;

if the prosecutor in george has any questions re RGH and/or this matter, he/she can contact me anytime in writing by way of email or call me during office hours on 073-1357311; in court i handed a few pages of explanatory information to a SAPS peace officer to add to the file, the lady at the cashier could not confirm whether this information was forwarded to the prosecutor in george or not;

as you're probably aware our request for a meeting with the director of traffic law enforcement in cape town, initially suggested by moffat zukelwa, was unprofessionally avoided and insufficiently answered by their own legal representative, although our last email communication with cindy ordeson suggested for the traffic office to propose any suitable time and date, but we've not heard from them since, greetings ben,

after some clarification and speaking to mrs. botha, as well as your secretary/assistant and yourself last week, via a very broken phone line, i can confirm you act in the capacity of chief public procecutor for the george cluster, which includes knysna; not sure if that is en par with district CPP though; in our conversation i explained the reason for my call or contacting you (see email to johan below), following up on the statements made by RTMC agents and officers of the court in knysna, i.e. the docket being requested by you or someone else at your court house;

this matter is important to the people and if no decision whether to resume the case or not can be made after sufficient deliberation, i suggest for the RTMC agent to follow magistrate thafeni's instructions and restore my private property, i.e. RGH travel card, record disc and number plates, so i can travel lawfully.

if the state and/or its corporate agencies wish to proof us wrong or stop people from exercising their inalienable rights and freedom, i suggest the state use its appropriate channels, i.e. the courts, an impartial tribunal or another alternative forum as per bill of rights. Contrary to advocate kyle reinecke's email, stating that until such time a court approves of RGH, all road users will be treated equally;

why should we the people have to visit your courts at our expense, seeking approval for something that is already lawful ? if the state has a problem with RGH or deems it illegal AND unlawful, then it is the state's obligation to initiate any proceedings, not us, like the old maxim "who claims, proves", if the state claims all statutes and corporate legislation apply to all and sundry, people have a contractual agreement with RTMC or any of the other foreign agencies or simply has jurisdiction in all cases like a divine right, the burden of proof is on the state; these and other pressing issues formed the basis of 4 cases UZA aka unified common law grand jury of southern africa filed with the constitutional court, i.e. CCT 19/14, CCT 218/14, CCT 225/15, CCT 78/16, but until today, the allegedly highest judges of your republic shroud themselves in secrecy, unwilling to answer and apparently threatened if they would do so; this is far from being over, the people have penetrated the corporate veil, putting the pieces together, demanding remedy, redress and recourse, at some stage you need to make a decision whose side you are on, the people, your friends, families and loved ones or some foreign fictitious cartel and entities, owned by criminals far removed from southern africa, plundering the nation for decades, keeping it in debt slavery, never to be sovereign again, greetings people of the courts, on the 25th july i visited the george magistrates court, accompanying hylton knowles, to possibly give expert testimony in support of his case, unfortunately that did not happen, allegedly due to administrative and procedural protocols; subsequently the matter got transferred to the traffic court.

during my visit i spoke thembeka winter, who apparently is alma smith's assistant; alma unfortunately was out of town on that day; i confirmed receipt of previous email conversation (see below) with thembeka, initially sent to ben walters, who since has retired; from what i comprehend, his position is still vacant, but alma has stepped in to deal with his office or affairs;

i explained my case and grievance to thembeka, who assured me to inform alma upon her return; now 4 weeks have passed, and once again, only adding to the "no reply" statistics; as evident from below email exchanges and conversations with johan engelbrecht, RTMC agent payle and moffat zukelwa, the court and/or RTMC are still in possession of my private property, i.e. republic of good hope travel card, record disc and number plates; on 15th december 2017 magistrate thafeni instructed agent payle to restore my private property, then, 2 days later, i was informed that the george court requested the docket to review the matter;

until this day, it is still unclear who exactly asked for the docket and/or who is looking into any possible review, ben walters when speaking to him earlier this year, denied any knowledge thereof; as hylton's matter is set down for trial on 3rd september i shall visit the court again, maybe anyone copied into this conversation will have any answers or is in a position to make a determination; i have obviously replaced all above mentioned documents and private property with new ones since last year, i.e. this is a matter of principle and courtesy;

thank you for any co-operation and remembering your oath of allegiance to the people, truthfully,

Good morning sir

We are not aware of any docket in this matter.

It seems that your documents etc. are in the possession of the Provincial Traffic Department and you can direct your enquiries to them. We cannot assist you in this regard.

greetings tina, thank you kindly for the swift response, would that be provincial traffic in knysna or george ?

i'm not sure if there was an actual docket for the matter requested or just a general enquiry, as stated in below email, the knysna court and peace officer payle both informed me that "the matter had been requested by the george court", that is all the information i received back in november 2017, thanks again and have a joyful remainder of the week,

cheers jan
